

Courage : Stand for right presented by : Govind lohar

Introduction

What is courage ?

*if you have courage to begin ,
you have courage to succeed*

-David viscott

Importance of Standing Up

- It's the right thing to do
- It can bring about positive change
- It sets a good example for others

Challenges

- Fear of criticism or rejection
- Fear of failure
- Lack of support or resources

Building courage

- Identify your values and principles
- Build a support network
- Take small steps towards action

Conclusion

Standing up for what's right takes courage, but it's worth it.

Remember that every small action counts, and that together, we can make a difference."
